

Patrick J. Judge

Assistant

Patrick is an administrative assistant. He serves as the editor of the Association's quarterly newsletter, prepares treasurer approved monthly disbursements, and oversees new member applications as well as other tasks as assigned by the IADLEST Executive Director.

Previously, he served as the IADLEST Executive Director for 15 years and then three years as its Deputy Director. Prior to his position with IADLEST, he served eight years as the Executive Director of the Michigan Commission on Law Enforcement Standards before retiring from the Michigan State Police. Pat started his law enforcement career as a police officer with the Detroit Police Department and served as a precinct officer, tactical mobile unit officer, and police academy instructor. He holds a Bachelor of Science Degree from Wayne State University, Detroit, Michigan.